Then you should definitely use that sentence in each piece of gross sales and promotional materials, and every time anyone asks you about your ebook.

Besides selling your books assiduously online, there are a number of other strategies that may allow you to promote more books.

One is to provide one thing away totally free with your e-book, equivalent to a precious bonus item. Or bundle several ebooks under one worth, which lowers the value for each e book if they had been bought separately.

An effective technique for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your present customers. If these prospects have already bought an e-book from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do this by making a gross sales page for the new ebook, but don't embody a worth on that page. As an alternative, add quite a lot of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

One other strategy is to check out costs by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with totally different costs on every page. Ensure your gross sales copy is precisely the same on each page, and includes your promoting-handle sentence. Then figure out for each page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and gross sales of your book. This can let you know what your optimum price is.

In the end, for those who've written a book that solves a drawback or presents a new technique, your guide will herald each traffic and profits. So be sure to write that selling-deal with sentence that sums up what drawback your guide solves and what the benefits of your 1013 e book will be to the purchasers who buy it.
