Do this by making a sales web page for the new e-book, but do not embody a price on that page. As an alternative, add quite a few hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a value to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out prices by creating a variety of duplicate sales pages with different costs on every page. Be certain your sales copy is precisely the same on every page, and includes your promoting-handle sentence. Then figure out for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and sales of your book. This can inform you what your optimum price is.

Ultimately, if you've written a e-book that solves a problem or presents a new technique, your book will usher in each site visitors and profits.
